

Meet Alex

Your New Golf Instructor at Springfield Golf

Get ready to elevate your game with Alex, our newest golf instructor at Springfield Golf Resort! A lifelong golfer, Alex discovered his love for the sport as a young junior, quickly rising to prominence on both his high school and college teams. His talent and dedication earned him All-State, All-District, and All-City honors, along with the prestigious Golden Scholar award as a junior. Graduating in the top 20 percent of his class, Alex combines sharp intellect with a deep passion for golf. Today, he's an active Associate in the PGA Program and competes professionally, bringing a wealth of experience and competitive insight to every lesson.

Alex has spent the last seven years coaching golfers of all ages, with a special focus on juniors over the past three years at an established junior academy. As leader of our Junior Golfer Programs, Alex is committed to making golf a fun, exciting journey for young players. His creative teaching methods ensure that kids not only enjoy the game but also build rock-solid fundamentals and skills that last a lifetime. Parents, if you're looking for an instructor who can inspire your child to fall in love with golf while developing their potential, Alex is the perfect fit—your junior golfer will be in the best hands!

For adults, Alex offers a results-driven approach tailored to your unique goals. Whether you're aiming to lower your scores, refine your swing, or gain more consistency, Alex crafts custom plans designed to deliver measurable improvement. His coaching style blends technical precision with a focus on enjoyment, ensuring you leave each session feeling motivated and closer to your best game.

With Alex's proven track record, infectious enthusiasm, and personalized approach, you'll find every lesson to be a rewarding experience. Book a session today for yourself or your child, and let Alex help you unlock your full potential on the course!
